KING'S DAUGHTER AGAIN SUCCESSFULLY CON CEDES CHUNKS OF WEIGHT.

T. C. McDowell's Great Mare Scores the Thirty-Fourth Victory of Her Career and Her Owner Changes His Plans for the Summer.

Louisville, Ky., May 27.—T. C. McDowell's consistent mare, King's Daughter, gave additional evidence of her high class when she successfully made great weight concessions to all the other starters in the mile handicap which featured today's card at the mile handicap which featured today's card at Churchill Downs. It marked her fourth consecutive victory this year, and brought her total number of successes during her six seasons on the turf to thirty-four. In today's race she thoroughly demonstrated her superiority to any racer in this section by forcing her own pace and winning as her rider pleased. Her racing record is now as follows: Year.

mer. Colonel Applegate expressed a belief that the New York racing situation is not as serious as it seems.

Boca Grande, reported to have broken down yesterday, was not as seriously affected as at first supposed, and his owner stated today that he would probably again be a starter before the close of the present meeting.

The horses in Lon Johnson's stable will shortly be disposed of by auction. They include Tom Hayward and All Red.

Three Latonia Derby candidates were given workouts this morning as follows: Joe Morris, mile in 1:33; John Furlong, mile in 1:30, and Boola Boola mile under hard restraint in 2:00.

Col. M. J. Winn, general manager of the Churchill Downs, Juarez and Empire City tracks, when asked regarding the future plans of the latter track, stated that he was not sufficiently in touch with the New York situation to make a positive statement, and mill the recently-passed bills were clearly defined he could not express an opinion as to the future of the sport in the metropolis. He is convinced, however, that all the New York tracks will go along in their usual way this season, as none of the bills passed will go into effect before September 1. "Sentiment for racing is too strong in New York." said Mr. Winn, "and to my way of thinking the public there will not permit it to be wiped out entirely. Empire City track will do its share to keep the sport alive until things change for the better."

Jockey A. Walsh was badly kicked on his return to the scales in the second race by Roseburg III.

MISSOURI MOVEMENT FOR RACING.

Million Population Club Takes Initiative in Plan to Bring About Restoration of Sport.

St. Louis, Mo., May 27.—The Million Population Club, one of the most energetic of the promotion organizations of this city, enthusiastically went on record yesterday in favor of a plan to replace the old Fair Grounds with a national exposition and fair, one of the features of which will be race meetings of short duration each spring and fail, with the pari-mutuels as the medium of speculation. C. F. Blancke, president of the Million Population Club, is quoted as follows in an interview:

"We had a fine meeting and there was not a dissenting vote to the plan. You may say that we are in the saddle in carnest, and with the backing of the merchants and press we will have a place that St. Louis will not be ashamed of.

"There is no need of calling the attention of our people to the necessity of such a place. With our carnival week only four months away, plans for it are practically chaotic. Mr. Lambert, who has done yeoman work, has an aviation meet on his hands, with practically no place to hold it. The great motor drivers of the world are writing daily, offering to come here, while we stand by helpless.

"The up-state farmers are crying for a chance to show the people of the state's metropolis what they are doing. The state's industries and the state's resources should have proper exploitation. The live stock and horse breeders of the state have no incentive to visit us. We invite our country coustus in the fall, give them a few days' entertainment and then the confetti throwers run them home. We must do more to hold them in our midst; we must give them a chance to show their products, and we must show them what the scientific world at large is doing.

"We want to work hand in hand with the Aero-Club to provide a permanent aviation field. We

BELMONT PARK'S TRIPLE STAKE PROGRAM OF TODAY

Three stake races of long standing and much importance will be decided at Belmont Park this afterroon. The first in the order of running will be the Fashion Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, at four and a half furlongs. Its first winner, L'Alouette, subsequently greatly distinguished herself by winning the Futurity of 1897. Since then such excellent fillies as Amietita, Ishlana, Incantation, Tiptoe, Court Dress and Field Mouse have gained the honor of being Fashion winners. The second in the day's stake list is the Toboggan Handicap, a race that has been won by the most famous American sprinters and numbers in its record of winners such distinguished names as those of Fides, Madstone, Correction, Hastings, Octagon, Banastar, Voter, Old England, Roseben and De Mund, Octagon and Banastar winning it twice. It has a capital entry list this year and if not spoiled by the scratching that so frequently mars Belmont Park racing should bring about an extra good race. The Amateur Cup is a race in which the horses are to be ridden by registered gentlemen riders exclusively and is the third of the fixed events of the day. The records of the three races are as follows:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE FRANK FEHR STAKES

Named in honor of a sports-loving citizen of Louisville, the Frank Fehr Stakes has been one of the interesting features of racing at Churchill Downs so long that its sixteenth running takes place this afterneon. Being a selling race, it has not been contested by the highest class of stake and handicap horses, but for all that it has fallen to excellent racers and has always been a favorite event with Louisville patrons of racing. In its list of placed horses the names of such celebrities as Rondo, The Commoner, Dunois, Carnero, Batten, Isabey, Larkspur, Alfred Vargrave, Stuyve, John McGurk, Fonsolnea, Phil Finch, Hyperion II., Wing Ting, Lens, Huck and Crystal Maid are conspicuous and, altogether, the Frank Fehr has always been a race well worth witnessing. #### WINNERS OF THE KING EDWARD HOTEL GOLD CUP

Among the events added to the Ontario Jockey Club's list of fixtures within the last ten years the King Edward Hotel Gold Cup has deservedly ranked high. Its conditions and value have attracted horse of high class annually since its institution and been productive of capital racing. A feature in its histories that the very fast Canadian crack, Inferno, was fortunate enough to win it three years in succession after running second in his first ressay at its honors. Inferno was a lorse capable of winning anywhere and not far from being the best racer ever bred in Canada. Another great horse successful in this race was Mike Daly's famous winner of many Derbys, Claude. The record of the event is we collected.

VALLEY FARM STABLE'S GOOD COLT TAKES THE BREEDERS' STAKES.

Jack Atkin Finds It Easy to Win Race in Which Walk-Up Start Is Taken Advantage Of-Coup Engineered on Montclair.

Toronto, Ont., May 27.—The Breeders' Stakes, for three-year-olds foaled in Canada, the Thorneliffe Purse for hunters on the flat over the mile and a quarter course, the Helter Skelter Steeplechase and the Leamington Handlcap were the feature races offered at Woodbine this afternoon. The Valley Farm Stable's Pariner, winner of the King's Plate a few days ago, took the Breeders' Stakes in rather easy fashion, making practically all of his own pace and cantering home a couple of lengths in advance of Frolic.

The Breeders' Stakes has been an annual feature of racing for three-year-olds at Woodbine since 1889. Its tabled history since 1900 is as follows:

The Seagram stable furnished the winner of the Leamington Handicap in Seismic, which cantered home ten lengths in advance of Plaudmore. Seismic had a big pull in the weights and was under a pull to the stretch turn.

Jack Atkin won the opening dash in a canter from John Griffin II. Starter Dade sent the field away to a walk-up start in this race and Jack Atkin, in close pursuit of the pace to the last turn, drew away into an easy lead in the homestretch.

A shrewd coterie put ower a real good thing in the closing race in Montclair, backed by his contentions from a high price of 40 to 1 to 12 to 1.

W. H. Northey, secretary-treasurer of the Montreal Jockey Club, was a visitor at Woodbine this afternoon. Mr. Northey's mission here was to secure horses for the Blue Bonnets meeting. John Powers promised to send to New York for several of the horses that he left there. He will ship the lot he has here, including Jack Atkin, to Montreal on Sunday, and Hugh Penny will leave for the same place with a carload on the same day. J. S. Ward and F. J. Pons have wired from Louisville asking for stable room, and several shipments are expected from New York.

BERKELEY WINS THE COSMOPOLITAN.

Fitz Herbert Is Withdrawn and Olambala Makes Disappointing Showing at Short Odds.

New York, May 27.—Berkeley, appearing for the first time in the colors of H. G. Bedwell, was winner of the Cosmopolitan Handicap at Belmont Park this afternoon at the remarkably liberal odds of 12 to 1. Jockey Shilling rushed him into a big lead immediately after the barrier went up, and when he went the first five-eighths in 55\(^2\) he had opened a gap that safely saw him home, though he was tiring at the end. After Fitz Herbert had been scratched R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s high-priced Olambala was made the favorite, but he was shy on speed and was outpaced at all stages of the race, the place going to the lightly-weighted Arondack, an added starier, with Norbitt third. Textile only had Ben Lomond opposing him in the opening race and it was only a canter for him to score at 1 to 10 in the betting. Sandrian easily took the measure of the favorite, Hampton Couri, in the succeeding race, and Pickaniuny was winner of the second two-year-old race at a long price. Stargowan scored in the fifth and in the last F. D. Weir's Galley Slave nosed out Mexoana, an odds-on favorite.

San Francisco, Cal., May 27.—The riding of Leeds was a feature of the racing at Oakland today. He landed four winners, while Lookout, his other mount, fell. Cuvina was the only favorite to finish in front, but most of the winners were well supported. Horses fell in three races, but their riders escaped injury. Bellsnicker stumbled in the first, while Aftermath, the favorite of the second, fell soon after the start. Lookout went down in the fifth. Cotton, on Aftermath, was so shaken up that he did not ride out his engagements.

Sir Angus proved an easy winner of the mile and an eighth race, beating Edwin T. Fryer, the second choice. Aks-Ar-Ben, the favorite, was always outpun. Milpitas was plunged on in the last, but Waner ran over him in the stretch.

Jockey Kirschbaum was suspended for two days by starter Holtman for misbehavior at the post.

Allen & Hensley have secured the contract on C. Williams and the boy will go to Salt Lake City.

ORIENTAL PEARL, away fast and showing the most speed, was never under pressure until in the last sixteenth, where she began tiring and only lasted long enough. New STAR, also lucky at the start, made a game effort and was overhauling the winner fast at the end. MOLLY MOG came from a long way back in the last furlong. COUNT DE ORO ran a good race. BLACK MAGIC suffered slightly from interference, SANCTIM dropped back in the first furlong and came again. ATHIE W. was away in a tangle and poorly ridden. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—Luscious, 101.

Overweights—Black Magic, 1 pound; Sanctim, 2.

89762 SIXTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles, (69041—1:53—3—104.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and ward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

INTERESTING CEREMONIALS AT WOODBINE.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister of the Dominion Presents Liverpool Cup to Owner of Detective.

Toronto, Ont., May 27.—The pair of racers that earned $4,000 for the Valley Farm Stable by taking the first two places in the King's Plate Tuesday were bred by Joseph James, of Windsor, who sold them and their dams to the Messrs. Hendrie two years ago or more. Placena and Losiola had been sent to Tennessee to be mated with The Commoner after their brief racing careers, and their progeny was the pair now known as Parmer and Commola. The Plate winner was named for Walter O. Farmer, secretary of the Highland Park Jockey Club and owner of the Edenwold Stad in Tennessee, where The Commoner is the premier stallion.

Not since 1903, when N. Dyment's Thessalon and Nesto were first and second, has one owner furnished the first two horses in the Plate. Mr. Seagram has done it five times, beginning with Martello and Athalo in 1893. No one has ever had the first three.

When Satin Bower won the Coronation Stakes Wednesday, it represented the fourth success in that fixture for Robert Davies.

The formal presentation of the king's guineas to col. J. S. Hendrie after Parmer had won the King's Plate on Tuesday was a pleasing ceremonial. In making the presentation, J. E. Seagram, president of the Ontario Jockey Club, addressed Colonel Hendrie as follows:

"I take the greatest pleasure in presenting you with this trophy. Being unable to win it myself. I am glad that such a good lover of horsefiesh captured it."

In accepting the trophy Colonel Hendrie said: "On this occasion I am glad to say that the Canadian to the content of the Canadian to the content of the Canadian to content of the Canadian am gad that such a good lover of horseflesh captured it."

In accepting the trophy Colouel Hendrie said: "On this occasion I am glad to say that the Canadian people have retained the great measure of common sense with respect to horse racing in Canada. The basis upon which it is conducted on the Canadian tracks is an evidence of the fact that it will always be a favorite sport in this young and growing country. It is a matter of congratulation that too many restrictions have not been placed upon this sport. It is with great pleasure that I accept this plate, but I do not wish to take all the honors to myself, as this year it goes to my brother. I won it last year with Shimonese. As we are partners in the Valley Farm Stable, we always divide the horors."

the Valley Farm Stable, we always divide the horrors."

"Are you going to continue dividing the honors?" asked Joseph E. Seagram, jocularly.

"That is a matter for the future," rejoined Colonel Hendrie, with a smile.

Immediately after the race a cablegram was forwarded to King George V. notifying his majesty of the winner of the trophy. Similar copies were forwarded to Lord Minto, now stationed at Simla, India, and Lord Grey, both of whom are great admirers of racing as conducted at Woodbine.

In reply, the following cablegrams were received by Secretary Fraser, of the Ontario Jockey Club, from Sir Arthur Bigge, private secretary of King George, and Lord Minto, viceroy of India:

"Please convey king's congratulations to Valley Farm Stable on their success in King's Plate.—A. Bigge."

"Please convey king's congratulations to Valley Farm Stable on their success in King's Plate.—A. Bigge."
"Hearty congratulations to the Hendries; best wishes to all.—Minto."
Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, who was to have taken part in the vice-regal state procession at Woodbine on opening day, the cancellation of which was rendered necessary by King Edward's death, witnessed the racing of Wednesday at Woodbine an honored guest of the Ontario Jockey Club, and made the formal presentation of the Liverpool Cup for Canadian-owned horses to the presiding genius of the Woodstock Stable, Charles Boyle, whose Detective won the race in commanding style. Sir Wilfrid congratulated Mr. Boyle on the possession of so fine a horse, and was still more interested when informed that Mr. Boyle was one of the oldest and closest friends of the late Hon. James Sutherland, of Woodstock, who was minister of public works in his first cabinet. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was accompanied by Hon. George P. Graham, minister of public works, and Hon. Senator Gibson, president of the Hamilton Jockey Club. The honors for the Ontario Jockey Club were done by Hon. Senator Melvin Jones, vice-president of the club.

Interest in Latonia Fixture Growing-Program Book Just Issued, Pleases Horsemen.

Just Issued, Pleases Horsemen.

Louisville, Ky., May 27.—Latonia's program book embracing the conditions of the first two weeks of racing has been distributed among the horsemen at churchill Downs by Assistant Secretary John B. Campbell and has met with favor. The conditions call for a disbursement of $26,000 by the association, aside from the stake offerings, during the first twelve days. The minimum purse is $300, while a $300 handicap is featured daily in addition to the numerous regulation $400 offerings. The stakes to be run for during the first two weeks and their values are: Latonia Derby, $4,000 c. Clipsetta Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, $1,500. Merchants' Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, $1,500 through the first two weeks and their values are: Latonia Derby, $4,000 c. Clipsetta Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, $1,500 through the first two weeks and their values are: Latonia provide brilliant contests. In framing the conditions, Secretary Magina kept in view all classes of horses and, to judge by the commendatory remarks from horsemen, has succeeded admirably in his work.

Should the entry list to the overnight purses be excessive and necessitate the throwing out of some of the entries, an entrance of $10 will probably be charged. This money will go to the winners in all cases. The rule of allowing but fourteen starters in any race excepting stakes will be strictly adhered to. There will be two races daily for two-year-olds, as there seems to be an abundance of juvenile material this season hereabouts.

The stake dates for the meeting are as follows: Latonia Derby—Monday, June 15.
Harold Stakes—Saturday, June 16.
Clipcinnati Trophy—Saturday, July 2.
June Paturday is announced as a positive starter in the Latonia Derby. His disappointing showing in the Latonia Derby. His Cincinnati Hotel Handicap—Saturday, any 5.

John Furlong is announced as a positive starter in the Latonia Derby. His disappointing showing in his last start is explained by Walter Grater, his trainer, on the ground that the colt was discovered to be suffering with influenza immediately after the race. He has fully recovered and is now doing nicely in his training. Mr. Grater is trying to obtain the services of an eastern jockey for the colt.

obtain the services of an eastern jockey for the colt.

J. N. Camden's Boola Boola is likely to be the post favorite for the Latonia Derby. He is training splendidly for the race and J. O. Keene is confident of his ability to beat Donau and Joe Morris, his erstwhile adversaries in the Kentucky Derby, because of Boola Boola's seeming liking for the extra quarter of a mile that the contestants will be required to go in covering the Latonia distance of a mile and a half. Boola Boola will start in the Latonia fixture regardless of the state of the going although his trainer prefers to see the race run over a fast track.

Trainer Jack Baker, who was somewhat dissatisfied with the ride that jockey V. Powers gave Joe Morris in the Kentucky Derby, has engaged jockey J. Deavenport to ride his charge in the Latonia fixture.

J. Deavenport to ride his charge in the Latonia fixture.

Track Superintendent Keegan of the Latonia fixture.

Track Superintendent Keegan of the Latonia course reports that the stables are filling rapidly. The improvements on the plant are nearing completion and but little more is required to be done before everything will be in theorough readiness for the opening. Special attention has been devoted to the shrubbery and flower beds on the lawns, infield and surrounding the clubbonse and the landscape effects will be more pleasing to the eye than formerly. The paddock will also receive a new dress, in addition to alterations.

Jack Campbell, who will assist Secretary Maginn, is busy at Churchill Downs looking after applications from horsemen for stable room and registering their horses.

All the leading riders at Churchill Downs will go to Latonia.

MAYOR GAYNOR'S SENSIBLE VIEWS.

New York, May 27.—Distinction between poolrooms and ordinary places where bets are placed on flyrse races was drawn yesterday by Mayor Gaynor in a letter which he sent to Police Commissioner Baker, giving instructions that hereafter the police are to use more care in giving such resorts their proper names. Careless use of the term "poolroom" has resulted in giving New York City a bad name,
the mayor says, inasmuch as the public in general is led to believe that the old-fashioned pool selling is still flourishing here. This is denied by the mayor, who states, however, that no doubt there are still betting rooms. He says poolrooms and pool selling were forbidden by the constitution in 1894, and there have been none in this city since then. Betting on horses, he says, is quite different from pool selling.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

C. W. H. R., Detroit, Mich. The reply to O. M. was correct. However, if he knew of the local practice you speak of, and bet with that knowledge, he would be bound by it. If he did not possess such knowledge, he should be paid. A bookmaker has no right to make a bet for a patron that the patron has not authorized, and the local practice named by you is a bad one,

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Pantoufle is troubled with a bad ankle.

Edwin Gould is patronizing the Belmont Park races for the first time.

There will be a military race at Pimlico today under the auspices of the Maryland Hunts.

There is already talk of an extension of the Latonia meeting in the event that the pari-mutuels prove a success there.

Jockey V. Powers, whose license to ride in Canada was confined to the horses of P. T. Chinn and C. C. Powers, has returned to New York.

Countless, J. G. Greener's Latonia Derby candidate, has gone lame at Churchill Downs and may be an absentee from the Latonia fixture.

Kimball Patterson has a sentimental interest in Winning Widow because Dissembler, her dam, was the first horse that ever won for him.

In the absence of John Powers, at Toronto, Walter H. Congdon is handling the horses owned by H. L. Shaw that are racing at Belmont Park.

Labold was named by J. C. Milam out of compliment to Col. Alex. Labold of Cincinnati. This is the second winner that has been named for Colonel Labold.

Pluvious propped quite perceptibly right after the finish of his recent race at Belmont Park, and it may be that the big son of Inflexible is slightly amiss in front.

The New York legislature adjourned yesterday.

Among the proposed legislation that failed of final passage was Senator Agnew's bill to prevent the publication of racing odds.

Elmer Wilson, who has handled the flag on the minor courses of Maryland, Virginia and other states, is officiating as starter at the meeting of the Maryland Hunts at Pimlico.

The cables from abroad bring a story to the effect that a jockey named Gallas was shot and killed by some infuriated bookmakers after the finish of a race at Bucharest in which he was alleged to have pulled his mount.

The Newcastle Stable's chestnut filly. Herodia, is pulled his mount.

The Newcastle Stable's chestnut filly, Herodia, is slightly pigeon-toed. The near front foot of the daughter of Adam is turned inside. Although she is ungainly when walking her action is perfect when set down for a real run.

All of George J. Long's mares came safely through the foaling season at Bashford Manor, and Mr. Long has a fine lot of colts and fillies, mostly the get of the Kentucky Derby winner, Sir Huon.
